CONDITION OF CROPS

Latest Report from the Statistician of Agriculture.

ISSUED FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE

Acreage and Condition of Cotton—Comparisons Made With Last Year—Reports on Winter and Spring Wheat—Condition of Other Cereals.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The report of the statistician of the department of agriculture for June makes the acreage in cotton 97.7 per cent. of the area of 1890, and the average condition 85.7. The reduction of area is attributed in some districts to concerted contraction on account of low prices, but it is evident that it is mainly due to unfavorable conditions for planting and germinating. The record of planting in the May report is quite accurately a history of the crop to the present time. Planting delayed by early rains, drouth in the latter half of April followed by continued drouth in May, germination arrested, replanting active, defective stands corrected, are the features of the record frequently and almost universal reported.

These conditions were less general and controlling in Texas than in any other state. The areas as compared with those of last year are given as follows: Virginia, 96; North Carolina, 94; South Carolina, 96; Georgia, 95; Florida, 99; Alabama, 96; Mississippi, 95; Louisiana, 96; Texas, 105; Arkansas 96; Tennessee, 95.

The general condition is the lowest for June since 1874, though it is only a fraction lower than that of 1883 and 1889, the latter a year of good yield through favorable conditions. The state averages of conditions are: Virginia, 78; North Carolina, 75; South Carolina, 80; Georgia, 80; Florida, 80; Alabama, 89; Mississippi, 88; Louisiana, 88; Texas, 91; Arkansas, 89; Tennessee, 73.

The temperature of May was quite too low for cotton, the cool nights checking germination, and retarding growth. Of course these conditions make the crop late in development, in some places a few days, in others a week or two later than in seasons of early development. There is frequent mention of bad stands, but the constant replanting will reduce the vacancies to a minimum. A cultivation is necessarily late, and fields grassy with the usual variation resulting from differences in soil, amount of replanting and relative promptness and efficiency of plantation managers.

The June report of the statistician department of agriculture makes the area in winter wheat as compared with the breadth, harvested last year, 111.5; spring wheat, 103.4; barley, 107.1; rye, 101.5; oats, 97.9.

Condition: Winter wheat, 96.8; spring wheat, 92.6; barley, 90.8; rye, 95.4; oats, 85.

In comparison with 1889, the increase in wheat acreage is quite moderate. The reduction last year of more than 2,000,000 acres suggests the reason for most of the present increase. This advance is, therefore, both replacement and development, the former notably in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and California. The latter in less degree in Washington, Oregon, the Dakotas and in several territories.

These violent fluctuations make the investigation difficult, and in some districts will render necessary supplementary work. To this extent present estimates may be considered preliminary. The extension of acreage, according to our correspondents, depends on price of wheat and not on available land. A large increment of wheat breadth is reported in Washington; a large amount of land is being broken for next year's crop, and the local opinion is expressed that not more than one-fifth of the wheat land of that new state is under cultivation.

The winter wheat crop is encroaching upon the southern and eastern borders of the spring wheat district, notably in Iowa and Wisconsin, under the protection of crop diversification and new methods of cultivation, while spring wheat extension responds moderately to the stimulus of higher prices.

The condition of winter wheat has declined only one point. The average of New York is 96; Pennsylvania, 97; Georgia, 98; Texas, 98; Ohio, 99; Michigan, 90; Indiana, 99; Illinois, 98; Missouri, 99; Kansas, 95; California, 97.

The first monthly statement of averages of spring wheat makes Wisconsin, 77; Minnesota, 89; Iowa, 93; Nebraska, 97; the Dakotas, 96. Early sown wheat was injured by frost in Wisconsin and Minnesota; germination was arrested by drouth in the same place. In South Dakota drouth has retarded growth. Conditions have been more favorable in North Dakota. Recent rains in Nebraska and Iowa have greatly benefitted wheat and encouraged the grower.

Winter oats in the southern states are far better than the spring crop which has been partially destroyed by drouth and insects. Not only was the acreage reduced in the Ohio valley, but condition is low in consequence of dry weather. In Minnesota the injuries of drouth were supplanted by those of cut worms. Condition is highest on the northern Atlantic coast and on the Pacific, where areas are very limited.

The increase in the acreage of barley is general in almost every section where it is grown, and especially marked in the states of the Ohio valley, in Wisconsin and California. Condition is uniformly high except in portions of the northeast, where it has been lowered by drouth and cool weather.

AKRON, O., June 11.—Thomas Huffman, an employee of the Akron Stone-ware company, tripped at work yesterday, and fell into a grinding machine. His head was crushed to a jelly and his body was ground to pieces.

HOT AT GRAND RAPIDS.
Encounter Between Street Car Strikers
and the Police.

GRAND RAPIDS, June 11.—The street car strike broke out again early Wednesday morning with violence from a crowd of 200, gathered at the Sweet street cable station.

They assembled at 3 o'clock, and were smashing things when a posse of police arrived. A pitched battle ensued. Revolvers were fired and bricks and sticks thrown. Detective Joseph W. Smith was hit upon the head with a stone and severely injured.

The police used their clubs and revolvers. They did not shoot into the air beyond the first volley, but directly into the mob. It is reported that one of the crowd was wounded mortally and others seriously. The officers arrested thirteen of the rioters.

The wounded were carried away by friends, and their names and condition cannot yet be ascertained. The police are hunting for them. Many of the rioters had revolvers and fired them at the officers, but none of the bullets took effect.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Delegates Gathering at Springfield to Nominate a State Ticket.

SPRINGFIELD, O., June 11.—The Prohibition state convention is being handsomely entertained by the citizens of this wide awake town. Yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the board of trade, the delegates were taken around to see the sights, chiefly the great industrial establishments.

The number of strangers in the town is estimated at about 1,500. The convention was called to order yesterday afternoon by Dr. H. A. Thompson, chairman of the state executive committee. Rev. A. P. Macklin, of Greenville, was introduced as temporary chairman. After his speech and the appointment of committees, the convention adjourned for the day.

There will be a red hot fight over the adoption of a platform. The advocates of the one-idea and the multi-idea platform are about evenly divided. The leading gubernatorial candidates are: Rev. Dr. Work, of Dayton; E. J. Penny, of Cleveland; J. J. Ashenhurst, of Canton.

YOUNG LADY OUTRAGED.

Two Men Arrested, and, If Identified, Will Certainly Be Lynched.

ZANESVILLE, O., June 11.—Miss Bertha Hoopman, aged 18, the only daughter of Elijah Hoopman, one of the wealthiest farmers in Ohio, while walking along the road near her father's residence, twenty miles southeast of here, Tuesday night, was seized by two men, dragged into a thicket and brutally outraged.

It was some time after she arrived home before she could be prevailed upon to tell what had befallen her. Ever since then organized parties have been scouring the woods and hills intending if the fiends were caught to dispense summary vengeance. The young woman is in a precarious condition.

Two men supposed to have been the outragers of Miss Hoopman were arrested at Quaker City last night and will be taken to Bylesville for identification. If they prove to be the guilty ones a double lynching will follow.

Serious Charges.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 11.—Samuel Miles, a wealthy farmer of Hendricks county, yesterday filed suit against George Wallace, George Schofield, Samuel Bailey and William Lindley, in which he charged that the defendants entered a business contract in 1889 to secure property by fraud. He charges that Wallace, in pursuance of the agreement, drew up fictitious abstracts of property and affidavits in support of them, and that Schofield agreed to take all good property off their hands in order to have it in the hands of a third party when the frauds should be discovered. Miles was one of the gang's victims, and he sue to recover the property.

Seeking Light.

FRANKLIN, Ind., June 11.—The city council last night accepted the franchise of the Franklin Water company for lighting the city with electricity. The plant will consist of thirty arc and ten incandescent lamps. The schedule of prices is $75 for midnight and $90 for all-night lighting, with a third option given by the city that four months in the year all-night lights be discontinued at midnight, and to be re-lighted from 4 o'clock to daylight at $85 per lamp. By this arrangement the cost will be $75.33 per lamp, a saving of $150 a year over the present method of lighting by gas.

Searching for a Farmer.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 11.—Search is being made for Valentine Brown, a young farmer residing in New Springfield, this county. He is charged with issuing notes amounting to several thousand dollars, forging the signature of his father to them. As the paper was known to be gilt-edged, he had no trouble in having it discounted. Suit was brought on one of the notes for $500, which was settled. It was supposed young Brown was in good financial circumstances.

New Southern Steamship Line.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 11.—Spanish capitalists residing in New York, Havana, Mexico and Spain have subscribed capital for the establishment of a steamship line, to run in connection with the Spanish Transatlantic company. The proposed line will connect Mexican ports with the Antilles, Colombia, Venezuela and Atlantic ports of Honduras, Guatemala and Belize, making direct communications with the United States and Europe.

Will Start Back Saturday.

LA PAZ, CHILI, June 11.—The steamer Iquique, with her cargo of arms and ammunition on board, accompanied by the United States cruiser Charleston.

The President Invited South.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A delegation, consisting of seventy-five southern gentlemen, headed by Senator Ransom, waited upon President Harrison yesterday and invited him to attend the southern exposition at Raleigh in October. Senator Ransom made a brief address, at the conclusion of which the president said it would be impossible at this time to definitely accept the invitation. He anticipated busy times in the preparation of his message to congress and with matters incident to its reassembling, but he assured the delegation that he greatly appreciated the evident cordiality of the invitation, and if he could so arrange public business at the time of opening of exposition he would gladly accept it. The delegation then presented the president with a book made of southern pine, inside of which were samples of North Carolina productions of cotton, leaf tobacco and mica, and on which was inscribed the formal invitation to the president and cabinet.

Strikers in Court.

Leaders of the Coke Strike Found Guilty of Rioting.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., June 11.—The jury in the case against John McSloy, Mike Dismon and twenty-eight other strikers for conspiracy and riot at the Frick company's Leyensring No. 2 works, yesterday found McSloy and Dismon guilty, and acquitted the rest.

The case of conspiracy, riot, etc.

against John B. Rae, Peter Wise and others were taken up yesterday and will take two days to try it. The operators seem to have other cases well worked up against the leaders in the strike and are determined to have them in the penitentiary if possible.

Court House Destroyed by Fire.

PIERRE, S. Dak., June 11.—Last night at midnight fire was discovered in the Stanley court house in Fort Pierre, opposite this city, and it, together with two store buildings adjoining, was consumed.

Loss, $30,000; with no insurance.

All the records of the county, which was organized one year ago, were destroyed, entailing a loss that can never be repaired.

It is generally believed the fire was started by an incendiary.

Died of Rabies.

ATCHISON, Kan., June 11.—A letter from Muscotah says that Jacob Vanover died of rabies Tuesday afternoon, and was buried yesterday. Thomas, the third brother who was taken to Kansas City for treatment, is in Atchison. He is apparently in good health, and his physicians express the belief that he will not be attacked. This is the third of the family who has died of the disease lately.

Lightning Strikes Oil Tanks.

COLEGROVE, Pa., June 11.—Yesterday evening at 5:30 during a brisk shower, which was accompanied by frequent flashes of lightning, the electric fluid struck two 30,000 barrel iron tanks, containing kerosene oil at this place, and they were entirely consumed. Trenches were dug by a large force of men to protect the pump station and adjoining property. The loss will be $40,000.

Petroleum Output.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The census report shows that petroleum was produced in eleven states in 1889, namely Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, West Virginia, Colorado, California, Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, Kansas and Texas, to the amount of 84,820,306 barrels, valued at $26,554,052. At an early hour this morning he was found dead in his cell. Alcoholism was the cause of the death.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The Yeaman-Anderson paper mill was totally destroyed by fire at 12:30 this morning.

The loss is estimated at $50,000; partially insured.

The Democratic factional fight in the Buckeye State can result in no good to the party. The Campbellites and Nealites ought to be forced aside. Let a good man who is not mixed up in the wrangle be nominated.

The Covington Commonwealth opposes the new Constitution, among other reasons, because it refuses to the Governor the right to appoint his confidential adviser, the Secretary of State, and then makes the office of Railroad Commissioner appointive. This is trivial, and we are surprised at the Commonwealth at using such arguments.

The monthly statement of the U. S. Treasurer shows only $3,900,000 available for present use. But Mr. Foster will remedy that. He is going to make a better showing the next time, even if he has to change the form of the statement. Sensible people, however, know that a change in the form of the statement won't put any cash in the treasury.

This Mayville Bulletin, so long known as the most conservative of journals, is losing its temper in the discussion of the new Constitution. It can scarcely believe that everybody opposed to the new instrument is necessarily corrupt, yet one would think it so believed by reading it. For ourselves, we have tried earnestly to work up to the point of belief for the new article, but when we see the friends of it display temper and offer no argument, we grow more decided that the thing is bad.—Carlisle Mercury.

We are not losing our temper at all. We believe the vote in August will be all right.

By the way, Brother Kellar, don't you know your editorial above is simply an echo of the Courier-Journal crowd's talk? They have been charging for some time now that the friends of the new Constitution are simply displaying temper and offering no argument. It seems to us the opponents of the document are the ones who are mad and are displaying their temper.

Pithy Points From Washington.

The saloon is the most potent factor for evil ever devised by Satan.

Every sound heard about a saloon, from the clinking of the glasses to the vile oaths, is the devil's own music.

The foul breath of the saloon is more noxious than that blown from a leperous hospital.

Saloons are pests which know at the very vitals of all decency, government and society itself.

The league between the liquor saloon and the devil is an indissoluble one, and it crushes life and hope out of thousands.

Center Shots from "Ram's Horn."

There is nothing for which a man has to pay so dear as he does for the privilege of being stingy.

It is a thousand times better to have our paradise at the end of life than it is at the beginning.

The only reason why sliding down hill is so nice is because it is such hard work to pull the sled up.

There would be more revivals if we had more preachers who were not afraid of dying in the poorhouse.

There is no virtue in doing what you have to do. Even the devil will behave himself when he is chained.

Advice That Is Good.

To aim at cheerfulness without levity.

Never to show levity when people are engaged in worship.

Frequently to review your conduct and note your feelings.

To say as little as possible of yourself and those who are near you.

Not to affect to be witty, or jest so as to hurt the feelings of another.

Never to court the favor of the rich by flattering their vanities of their riches.

Never to think worse of another on account of his differing from you in political and religious subjects.

Never ridicule sacred things or what others may esteem as such, however absurd they may appear to you.

To speak with calmness and deliberation on all occasions, especially of circumstances which tend to irritate.

If there was any chance for salvation after death, the devil would not work so hard to persuade men to put off praying until the last minute.

FIGHTING THE CONSTITUTION.

The Opponents Organize Yesterday at Lexington.

The opponents of the new Constitution met yesterday at Lexington and organized for a determined fight.

The convention was called to order by Colonel J. Stoddard Johnson.

At the close of his speech Hon. J. Q. Ward, of Harrison County, was put in nomination for permanent Chairman by Hon. Walter Evans, of Louisville.

There was no opposition, and Judge Ward was chosen unanimously. Urey Woodson, of Owensboro, was made Secretary.

Organization for the campaign was effected by the appointment of the following committees: Central Committee—J. S. Johnston, Frankfort, Chairman; John H. Wilson, of Knox; Walter Evans, of Louisville; J. W. McCain, Trimble; L. N. Leonard, Lyons; W. C. Webb, Laurel; W. C. Gray, (Alliance and Labor man), Louisville. Executive Committee—First district, L. D. Husbands, McCracken; Second district, Cromwell Adair, of Union; Third district, G. Terry, of Todd; Fourth district, A. J. Gross, of Breckinridge; Fifth district, Judge W. L. Jackson, Louisville; Sixth district, T. J. McElrath, Carroll; Seventh district, James E. Cantrell, Georgetown; Eighth district, Walker C. Bennett, Richmond; Ninth district, John M. Burns, Boyd; Tenth district, Hon. Robert Riddle, Estill; Eleventh district, Hon. J. H. Tinsley, Knox.

For the Farmer.

Considerable tobacco is being delivered to the dealers here this week.

The peach crop in Delaware this season promises to be the largest for years. Thousands and thousands of baskets are being made in which to carry the fruit to market. The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad has ordered 1,000 new cars to rush the peaches into the cities.

The farmers of this county have every reason to be encouraged over the prospects so far for a good crop of nearly all the staples raised here. The rains of the past few days seem to have been general, and everything points to a prosperous year for the tiller of the soil.—Augusta Vindicator.

The June report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture makes the area of winter wheat as compared with the area harvested last year, 111.5; spring wheat, 103.4; barley, 107.1; rye, 101.5; oats, 97.9. Condition: Winter wheat, 96.6; spring wheat, 92.6; barley, 90.3; rye, 95.4; oats, 85.

The Coldwater (Mich.) Republican says: "There is a pacer at Leslie, Jackson County, that is so fast he can beat a driving rainstorm. His owner, while out driving the other afternoon, looked over his left shoulder and saw it raining about twenty rods behind, but he set the pacer going and arrived home before the rain fell on his stable roof. And now they talk of barring the rain-beater."

The Cincinnati and Southeastern.

The final orders in the receivership of the above-named railroad have been made. Mention was made some time ago of the sale of the road at auction by Receiver Watson Andrews to McHarg & Co. for $55,100. Since the sale the name of the road has been changed to the Covington, Flemingsburg and Ashland. The new officers are: President, W. W. Franklin, of Columbus, O.; Vice President, Watson Andrews, of Flemingsburg; Superintendent, N. S. Dudley, of Flemingsburg; Directors, D. S. Brown, of Columbus; W. W. Franklin, H. K. McHarg, of New York; David Wilson and Watson Andrews, of Flemingsburg. When Receiver Andrews took charge the road was $1,500 in debt and had no coaches. In terminating his receivership, Mr. Andrews turns the road over unincumbered, with a balance of $4,000 in the treasury, in possession of two coaches, while 7 per cent. has been paid on the stock and the bondholders will be paid 92 per cent. on face of the bonds.

A Common Sense View.
Nearly every business has its "dull season," during which a good advertisement will do faithful work day and night, rain or shine, in familiarizing consumers with the name, location and specialties or advantages of the advertiser, so that when the time to buy comes he reaps the benefit of his seed sowing.—Azro Goff's Circular.

A Deathbed Question.

Not long before his death Barnum summoned his lawyer to the side of the couch where he was lying. "I am very much worried," he said, "about a certain matter, and I want to consult you. My neighbor keeps peacocks. Suppose some of them should fly over into my yard—which they are doing all the time—and lay some eggs here. Would those eggs belong to me, or could my neighbor compel me to give them up?"

The lawyer, having duly scratched his head, answered: "Well, Mr. Barnum, I must take time to look into this matter. But the best thing for you to do would be to keep the eggs and let your neighbor sue for their possession. In that way your rights would be determined, and we should have a very valuable test case."

"Well," said Barnum, "while you are looking into the matter will you find out how it would be if the eggs were laid by peahens?" The lawyer swore softly to himself, but never made any investigation.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A unique character in the Princeton college faculty is Joseph Korge, professor of modern languages. Adventure and experience of a rough nature have marked his life, the earlier part of which was spent in Europe. Coming from a family of Polish gentlemen who made arms their profession, he went into the German army soon after finishing his university education, and for a time was closely associated with Prince Frederick. Later on the Polish insurrection drew him into it and made a longer residence within Russian dominions undesirable. So the ardent Pole came to this country, and won distinction in the Union army before he settled down as a pedagogue under the shadow of old Nassau.—Harper's Weekly.

New York's good friend, Ismail, the ex-khedive of Egypt, who presented the city with the obelisk in Central park, is still practically a prisoner at Constantinople. He is confined in a palace, and when he goes out is always accompanied by an ill-looking lot of Turks. These are ostensibly his guard of honor, but in reality they are soldiers who never lose sight of their distinguished prisoner.

D. D. Martin, of Dublin, Cal., made quite a raid on the squirrels after a recent storm. He prepared five gallons of poisoned barley and scattered it near the squirrel holes on forty acres of land, and succeeded in killing 4,821 by actual count.

Oklahoma is nearly as large as the state of Ohio. It has 60,000 inhabitants, a larger number than either Wyoming or Nevada has, and is now about ready for statehood.

To speak with calmness and deliberation on all occasions, especially of circumstances which tend to irritate.

If there was any chance for salvation after death, the devil would not work so hard to persuade men to put off praying until the last minute.

THE Secret service officers have notified all the jewelers of Chicago that hereafter they will be prosecuted for counterfeiting in case they are caught gold-plating silver or nickel coins for use as bangles. BURGLARS AT WORK.

They Visited Fern Leaf Last Night, and Secured About $200.

Burglars were abroad in the county last night, and made a pretty snug haul at Fern Leaf.

Evans & Burgoyne's store at that place was entered, the safe was blown open and between $150 and $200 was stolen.

The thieves effected an entrance by breaking open the front door. They secured $150 in cash, and checks for various sums, the total amounting to over $200.

Mr. Burgoyne came to Maysville early this morning and placed the case in the hands of Marshal Heflin. The banks were given instructions and the checks will not be paid if presented.

There is but little, if any, clue to the robbers. They are no doubt experts, judging from their work on the safe. The knob of the safe-door was pulled off by means of the "burglar's clamp" and then the safe-door was blown open with some explosive.

THE warrant against "Paddy" Parks, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses, was dismissed by the court at Covington. Miss Lowe, whom he deceived and who was the principal witness, failed to appear against him. The Covington correspondent of the Enquirer says: "There was another incident connected with the case that Miss Lowe evidently did not want to be brought out."

ELDER E. L. METZ, of Dover, was one of the eighteen graduates who received diplomas from the Bible College, Lexington, this week. The subject of his remarks at the commencement was "Will it Pay?" and the Leader says: "A rich moral was the undercurrent of his address. He held that any transaction in life 'paid' that was conducted on high and conscientious principles, whether commended by popular voice or not—that all honorable work executed in the fear and love of God was profitable, whether it received the stamp of public approval or not. 'They also serve who only sit and wait,' and often times the noblest and the grandest heroes were those whose influences were silent and unobtrusive, and frequently not palpable to the world at large. Politics, as conducted at the present day, came in for some pretty severe slams, administered with a certain dull humor that elicited much applause. Certain mercantile practices were heartily decried, and many other prevailing evils of the day. The living, burning question is not 'Will it Pay?' but 'Is it Right?' He spoke with great earnestness and enthusiasm, and created a most favorable impression. Flowers and gifts were lavished upon him."

Elder Metz is pastor of the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek.

Excitement in Rome Over the Pope's Finances.

AN EXAMINATION TO BE MADE.

Some of the Pope's Employees Persistent Speculators in Foreign Bonds and Securities—Horrible Murder in Leeds, England—A Queen's Power—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 11.—A Rome dispatch says that considerable excitement prevails in regard to the financial affairs of the pope. It is said that his holiness is not satisfied with the examination made by the committee of cardinals, and proposes to have an expert accountant go through the books of the papacy back as far as his own accession to the papal throne.

It now appears that one of the pope's trusted employees has been a persistent speculator in Argentine securities, and had to go to the wall when that republic failed to meet its obligations. Another was guilty of the still less pardonable offence of investing in Italian bonds.

Distinguished Italian Dead.

ROME, June 11.—The distinguished Italian and ecclesiastic, Rev. Father Curcia, is dead. He was born in 1800, and was foremost and eloquent pulpit orator of the Society of Jesus. Father Curcia founded the Civita Catholica. In 1857 he was expelled from the Society of Jesus for opinions expressed by him with regard to the temporal power of the pope. Later he retracted, and he has for years past been engaged on a translation of the Old Testament, with the formal approval of the ecclesiastical authorities.

The Power of a Queen.

LONDON, June 11.—A dispatch from Cape Town says the Queen of Amatonga, enraged at the conduct of one of her indunas, ordered the unfortunate man to be impaled, which punishment was inflicted in the presence of two missionaries and the Amatonga force of about 2,000 men. The scene was frightful, as the unfortunate chief made all the resistance he could. The missionaries say that the induna executed was at one time a great favorite of the queen. Amatonga is a small, independent country, near Zululand.

Murdered and Mutilated.

LEEDS, June 11.—Barbara Waterhouse, the 5-year-old daughter of a quarryman, disappeared mysteriously last Saturday. At midnight last night her body was recovered in the street, near the town hall, horribly mutilated. The legs and arms had been almost severed by deep gashes. The body had been cut open and the intestines protruded. The clothing had evidently been replaced after the murder.

Escaped to France.

LONDON, June 11.—A German soldier fired on a peasant, near Rüssingen, on the Lorraine frontier, Monday. The peasant, a young man named Albrecht, had been drawn for the army and determined to make his escape. He darted past the sentinel, but received a bullet in his leg. This did not prevent the young conscript from escaping into France.

Presents for Life Savers.

LONDON, June 11.—The president of the United States has caused to be presented a gold watch and medal to the captain, and gold watches and chains to the first and third officers of the steamer Allen Shaw for rescuing the crew of the schooner Electric Light.

Navigation Trouble Settled.

LONDON, June 11.—Mozambique advises that the British admiral and the Portuguese governor general have amicably settled the question of the navigation of the Pungwe river.

Catholic Bishop Dead.

DUBLIN, June 11.—Right Rev. John Egan, Roman Catholic bishop of Waterford and Lismore, is dead. He had been suffering for some time past with influenza.

ELLIOTT MURDER TRIAL.

Two Other Eye-Witnesses Testify Before the Court.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The examination of eye-witnesses, in the Elliott murder trial, continues with unabated interest. Nothing of importance occurred yesterday morning, but the afternoon's testimony was decidedly important. John Lonnis, a butcher, and J. M. Branaejam, a fruit dealer, were within ten feet of the participants in that noted tragedy and gave the details with clearness.

They were the first witnesses that swore to both W. J. and Patrick Elliott firing before Osborne drew his gun. They disagreed a little, however, as to the order of the shots fired by the Elliots. Lonnis stated that W. J. Elliott fired twice before Patsy's first shot, while the other witness brings Patsy's shot in between the first and second fired by W. J. Elliott. Branaejam testified that Osborne was leaning on his cane when the Elliots came upon him from behind, both opening fire when they had reached his front. Not until after he had been shot did Osborne draw his revolver and fire at Bill Elliott.

Patsy at that time ran into the street, leaving his brother to continue the fusillade until Osborne had retreated to the store when he reappeared upon him, firing. Witness further testified positively to seeing Bill Elliott fire over the shoulder of a woman, behind whom he dodged.

The bullets taken from Osborne's body and brain were introduced with the testimony of Dr. Warner. They were of .38 and .32 calibres, fitting the guns of W. J. and Patsy Elliott respectively.

Drink Drives a Young Man to Suicide.

DENVER, June 11.—Alexander Fraser, son of Mrs. Flora Fraser, of Chicago, committed suicide in a room on Curtis street, in this city, at 8 o'clock, by shooting himself through the heart. The young man is a nephew of Alexander McDonald, the president of the consolidated tank line company. He had been drinking hard for some time.

TYPOGRAPHICAL CONVENTION.

Delegates to the Boston Meeting Not in Favor of the World's Fair.

BOSTON, June 11.—At the third day's session of the International Typographical union yesterday the finance committee reported having examined the books of the treasurer and found them correct.

The world's fair at Chicago did not seem to be in very much favor. Proposals to establish a paid commission to sit after the convention, and providing for an industrial exhibit on the part of the printers at the fair, were overwhelmingly defeated.

The proposition to change the union label of the printers so as to make it applicable to all forms of printing was adopted.

The committee reported in favor of all union printers demanding the union label in all cases on all goods, which was agreed to by the convention.

The invitation from the mayor of Boston for a trip down the harbor at 2 p.m. was accepted.

All the amounts to.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 11.—A report has been made to the superior court by the grand jury, which investigated the lynching of A. J. Hunt, by United States soldiers April 25. A true bill was found against only seven enlisted men in the Fourth United States cavalry, although the jury were satisfied that there were a number of others equally guilty. This belief was not supported by sufficient evidence to indict. The jury believed that precaution would have prevented the outrage, and that the sheriff was taken by surprise. The latter, however, should have given a general alarm. It is recommended that the troops at Walla Walla be exchanged to some other fort in view of the present feeling against them.

Sam Small Not Short in His Accounts.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—A special from Ogden, Utah, received here states that the Rev. Sam Small has been found by an auditing committee to be $1,000 in arrears in his university accounts. The Rev. Mr. Small has received a private telegram which entirely contradicts the above. It is signed by Thomas Maloney, a prominent attorney of Ogden, who is a member of the committee, and is as follows: A committee, consisting of Bishop Andrews, Dr. Illiff and myself, have carefully audited your accounts as president of the Utah university, and find no charges whatever against you. No exoneration is needed.

An Unbalanced Mind.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., June 11.—David Louden, a prominent Democrat, aged 72, ex-county recorder, now serving as peace justice in Addison township, attempted suicide by cutting his throat yesterday. He was discovered in an out-building near his residence by one of his sons, lying in a pool of blood, his throat being cut from ear to ear. Mr. Louden used a common pocket-knife. It is understood that overwork has temporarily unbalanced his mind.

Opera House Burned.

BALTIMORE, June 11.—Concordia opera house, located on Eutaw street, near Baltimore, was burned last night. Loss will amount to about $50,000; partially insured. Edwin Forrest played his farewell engagement in the Concordia and several other famous actors, actresses and lecturers had appeared at the old house.

Latest Naval Order.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—An order was issued at the navy department yesterday, ordering Rear Admiral D. B. Harmony to hoist his flag on the Lancaster on the 2d instant, and to proceed to the Asiatic station and relieve Rear Admiral Belknap of the command of the station.

Sheriff Egan captured the murderer and brought him to this city, where he is in jail. The people are much excited, and fears are entertained of a mob breaking into the jail and lynching the Mexican.
